

FREE WOOL TO STAY IN BILL

No Changes in the Bill Were Made in Caucus Yesterday

UNDERWOOD REPORTS TO THE PRESIDENT

On Tariff's Progress in Caucus—To Reach Senate in Three Weeks

Washington, April 17.—The Democratic caucus voted decisively yesterday to support the wool schedule of the Underwood tariff bill, placing raw wool on the free list.

By a vote of 190 to 42 an amendment offered by representative Dies of Texas to place raw wool on the dutiable list was rejected.

Before reaching wool the caucus disposed of the cotton and flax schedules, voting down all amendments to lower or increase the duties proposed in the committee bill.

The silk schedule is next in order. The Wilson-Underwood tariff bill will be passed by the House in practically its present form, Representative Underwood, chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, told President Wilson yesterday.

The House leader called to explain that the bill was "now over the hill" so far as the House caucus was concerned; that the clauses on which the hardest fights were expected had found the majority "standing pat" with the president and that it would be easy running beneath. The president expressed the belief that when the bill finally reached the Senate it would have as easy a time of it as in the house.

Underwood told the president that the bill would not be held up very long in passage. After the caucus gets through, he said, there will be a few days of general debate and then the bill will be

The Working Man's Friend In Time of Sickness

I am a blacksmith by trade and would like to say a word to all who have to work hard and suffer with their kidneys. I suffered for about ten years and was treated by a Waynesboro, Va., doctor. He said that I had Bright's disease and that he had done all he could for me. I read about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and as I could hardly do a day's work, was willing to try anything that would do me any good. After taking Swamp-Root a few days, I felt so much better that I continued until I felt that I was cured, and I was altogether a new man. That was eight years ago, and if I ever feel the least pain about my kidneys I just take a few doses of Swamp-Root and in a few days I am all right. I feel to-day that I am a well man and would say to all who suffer with their kidneys, take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, for it has done more for me than all the doctors and saved doctors' bills.

I can further say that about two years ago my son was sick in bed and was taking medicine from doctors and got worse all the time. I went in the night and got a fifty-cent bottle of Swamp-Root and told him to lay aside all the doctors' medicines and take Swamp-Root. He took six bottles, and I am glad to say that he is well to-day and has not had any trouble with his kidneys since. It was Swamp-Root that cured him. My son now thinks that there is no medicine that a doctor can give that can compare with Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

Very truly yours,
G. W. HARDING,
Covington Va.
Personally appeared before me this 8th day of March, 1912, G. W. Harding, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that same is true in substance and in fact.

Given under my hand this 8th day of March, 1912.

taken up schedule by schedule under the five-minute rule of debate. He predicted that it would be before the Senate in about three weeks.

So far as opposition to the income tax provision is concerned, Mr. Underwood told the president, it seems to be based on a misapprehension. Certain of the big insurance companies, he said, have been telling their policy holders that the bill provides a tax on beneficiaries. This is not so, the framer of the measure insisted. He explained that where death or endowment benefits are paid they are in no way recorded as incomes. Should the money be invested in income bearing securities it then becomes subject to the tax.

"Cheaper clothing was the slogan yesterday of the House Democrats in their tariff caucus. The downward revision fight centered yesterday on the cotton, flax and wool schedules, with the most bitter factional struggle promised over the proposal of the Underwood bill to put raw wool on the free list.

BALKAN ARMISTICE RUMORS RENEWED

Montenegro Still Holds Out, and the Allies Face Internal Strife.

London, April 17.—A ten days' truce has been arranged between the Bulgarian and Turkish commanders, according to a Constantinople dispatch to The Daily Telegraph.

Persistent reports, none of them officially confirmed, continued all over Europe yesterday to the effect that another armistice has been agreed upon in the Balkan war. In Constantinople, it was believed that Turkey and Bulgaria had agreed upon a ten-day cessation of hostilities. The news that got to Paris was that a three-day truce had been arranged between Turkey and all the allies except Montenegro. The ambassadors in London, according to dispatches, pressed to believe that the end of the war is near and that the combatants will shortly agree upon terms.

At variance with this optimistic view came word from Cetinje that the Montenegrin foreign office, at King Nicholas' order, had told the powers that Montenegro would not accept monetary consideration in return for Scutari. The little kingdom will continue to besiege Scutari and will yield only to superior force.

No fighting between Turkey and Bulgaria, or Serbia, or Greece has occurred for many days. The Servians have withdrawn from Scutari. The Montenegrins accused the Servians of fearing the odds, and Bulgaria and Greece are at odds over Salonica, so that the allies apparently are too busy with internal strife to pay much attention to the Ottoman.

AMPLIFIES HIS ATTACK ON RICH.

Vice-President Marshall Urges Socialism in Business as Socialism Antidote.

Washington, April 17.—Amplifying his speech of Saturday night before the National Democratic club in New York City, in which he served warning on the rich, Vice-President Marshall yesterday authorized in a local paper the publication of a remarkable amplification of that address. Principally he urged injection of socialism into "big business" as an antidote for Socialism. He also reiterated his argument against the perpetuation of great fortunes.

The vice-president insisted he was not expressing his personal opinions alone but that he was guided by those expressed to him "by many honest financiers, lawyers, miners and ditchdiggers, men he had met on the street, on trains, and trolley cars, and in their homes."

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

Ray Keating begins to look like a real big league pitcher. Keating is not yet of age and has all the earmarks of the best moundmen ever to enter the big leagues. Last fall he was secured by the Highlanders from Lawrence, where he established a wonderful record. He won his first game this season in admirable fashion.

Business Manager Erwin of the Highlanders says that in his belief the hardest hitting and the fastest fielding outfit in the American League is comprised of Lelivelt, Cree, Wolter, Daniels and Wolter of the Highlanders.

Hol Chase is showing his spurs as a second baseman. When Chase was pulled off first and put in at second skeptics were bewailing that he would be an utter failure. Now he has made good and George Stallings, the Braves' manager, who was at one time in charge of Chase, says that the king of first basemen is capable of playing the three bases and shortstop.

WAR ON OLD SOLDIERS

The Startling Plan of Senate Democrats to Oust Them

SALARIES SHARPLY CUT BY RESOLUTION

Governor Guild Will Stay Some Time in Russia

Washington, April 17.—Indignation has been aroused among old soldiers at the capitol and their comrades elsewhere because the Senate Democratic management has slashed the pay of the veterans on the Senate permanent roll.

Not only that, but threats are held that if the old soldiers through any of the Republican senators seek to get any redress they will all be "fired." On the permanent roll are thirty old soldiers. By a Senate resolution they cannot be removed except by action of the Senate. Most of them have been employed as doorkeepers. The Senate Democrats, not caring to try to oust them, proceeded to cut salaries. In a number of cases the reductions are half the salaries. Aged veterans who are unable to perform manual labor, it is charged, have been sent down to the folding room. Senator Smoot called a meeting in his office Tuesday afternoon. But some of the old soldiers asked him to take no action for the present, saying they had been advised they would be discharged entirely if any move was made in the Senate to restore their salaries. Senator Smoot intended to bring the matter up in the Senate Tuesday, but a Democratic senator told him if he did all the old soldiers would go. The Utah senator says the treatment of the veterans is unjust, that the Democrats are treating as political jobs the Republicans never dreamed of so treating, and that the country will not countenance what is being done when it understands it.

CRUEL JOKE ON SENATOR LEWIS.

A Merry Wag Raises Doubt as to the Legality of His Election.

Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, the new senator from Illinois and the last member of the upper branch of Congress to be elected directly by the legislature of a state, had a bad half hour yesterday when a jocular friend told him there was a possibility that Secretary of State Bryan would announce that Mr. Lewis could not take the oath of office because of the recent amendment to the constitution on providing for the election of senators by direct vote. "Goodness gracious," exclaimed Colonel Lewis. "We'll have to see about that at once." When the new senator's fears were set at rest after a hurried telephone call to the state department, the joking friend had disappeared. Senator Lewis was forced to go to the capitol, but he announced belligerently that he would interview the "friend" later—probably with a club.

Crane Sees Wilson; Guild Recall Gossip.

Washington, April 17.—Charles R. Crane of Chicago, known to be foremost among President Wilson has had under consideration for appointment as ambassador to Russia, was a White House caller yesterday, and the executive offices were silent on the subject of his visit. Secretary Bryan, who was a caller about the same time, was asked about the incumbency of the present ambassador, Curtis Guild, and said that Mr. Guild had been granted a two months' leave of absence on account of his health.

Those familiar with procedure in the diplomatic service thought it unlikely that Mr. Guild would take a two months' leave if he were soon to be supplanted.

Hill expressed ignorance that he was interfering with naval and commercial stations. He was released on his personal recognizance.

AUBURN STRIKE SETTLED.

Strikers Vote to Accept Terms Offered by Harvester Co.

Auburn, N. Y., April 17.—The largest strike in the history of Auburn was settled last night when workers in the various departments of the Columbian Rope company, employing 1,100 hands, voted unanimously to return on the company's terms.

These terms establish a minimum wage and recognition of a union.

Citizens are now turning their efforts to prevent the International Harvester company removing its twine mill to Germany.

PATERSON FIRMS LEAVE CITY.

Strike, Now in Eighth Week, Causes Silk Companies to Migrate.

Pateron, N. J., April 17.—Two of the many silk mills now idle because of the strike of 25,000 workers for more pay and shorter hours are leaving Paterson. One firm, Aronsen & Bloom, employing 250 weavers, is going to Bayonne, N. J. The other, the Schreyer Silk Dyeing & Finishing company, with 100 on its payroll, is shipping its machinery to Towanda, Pa. The strike is now in its eighth week.

NOW SOLD IN AMERICA

In Less Than Five Years, Parisian Sage, the Splendid Hair Tonic, Is Sold All Over America.

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States during the past three years. And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask the Red Cross Pharmacy about it. They will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it, and it never disappoints.

Sold by druggists everywhere, and by the Red Cross Pharmacy, for 50 cents a large bottle.—Adv.

DEFENDS ACTION IN MELLE CASE

New Haven Vice President Says That State Attorney Proposed Wrong.

Boston, April 17.—Vice President E. G. Buckland of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company, issued a statement yesterday explaining his attitude toward a statement sent through him to President Mellen by State Attorney Stiles Judson concerning Mr. Mellen's indictment on the charge of manslaughter because of his alleged responsibility for the Westport wreck.

It follows:

"On the afternoon of April 8, my clerk reported that somebody had called him on the telephone from Bridgeport, stating that he was Stiles Judson, state attorney, and in substance that unless Mr. Mellen or I would require the attorneys for the officials of the railroad company on trial to change their defense, he would arrest Mr. Mellen and bring him to trial.

"He told my clerk that this was a confidential communication. It was afterward repeated to me by my clerk. It struck me from the first as something akin to blackmail, asking Mr. Mellen to sacrifice four innocent men to save himself. Mr. Mellen promptly replied that he would have nothing to do with such an arrangement, regardless of the personal consequences to himself.

"I so stated to Mr. Judson and made affidavit to it. At no time did I accept the communication as confidential, nor could I at any time so have accepted it without becoming an accessory to the wrong proposed. If I had carried out Mr. Judson's suggestion I would have been doing a grave wrong to innocent men.

"Having refused to become a party to the wrong, I could not stand by without a protest and see Mr. Mellen brought into court under what I regard as an abuse of process by a prosecuting officer."

RESCUED FROM OPEN BOAT.

Crew of Schooner Lottie Russell Drifted 24 Hours, Surrendered by Sharks.

New York, April 17.—The crew of the schooner Lottie R. Russell, which was abandoned seventy miles off Cape Henry on April 13, reached New York yesterday on the oil steamer Georgian Prince. For forty-eight hours they said, they had been adrift in the Atlantic, and for twenty-four hours in a small open boat surrounded by sharks.

The schooner, of 200 tons burden, sailed from Charleston, S. C., for Philadelphia last Friday. Saturday morning she encountered a terrific gale and high seas, and sprung a leak, from which she soon became water logged, although all hands were sent to the pumps. Nearly all the provisions were swept away and, as the cook could not leave the pumps, the crew of seven men and the wife of the mate lived on only a few mouthfuls of brine-soaked bread. At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon the vessel was abandoned. During the twenty-four hours the crew and the mate's wife were adrift in an open boat they had no water and lived by wetting their lips with the juice of canned peaches of which they had but a very small quantity. The Georgian Prince was sighted and they were taken up on the afternoon of Monday, April 14.

The revenue cutter Onondaga yesterday started on a search for the three-masted schooner Lottie Russell, wrecked and abandoned off Cape Hatteras.

W. L. MOORE IS REMOVED

President Wilson Withdraws Acceptance of Weather Man's Resignation

AND THEN KICKS HIM OUT OF OFFICE

Grave Irregularities Are Charged Against Him

Washington, April 17.—Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau since 1895, yesterday was summarily removed from office by the president.

His resignation recently was accepted to take effect July 31, but after an investigation of his alleged attempts to become secretary of agriculture in the Wilson cabinet grave charges of irregularities were preferred and the president yesterday withdrew the acceptance of his resignation and dismissed Professor Moore.

Investigation of the charges is still under way. The president also directed the secretary of agriculture to suspend Charles T. Burns, an employee of the weather bureau, pending further investigation of his case.

Other employees may be disciplined. Unofficially it is said a campaign of letter writing all over the country was conducted to advance the candidacy of Moore for secretary of agriculture.

Congress also recently asked for details as to expenditures by the department for traveling, etc.

Prof. Moore issued a statement last night declaring that the same influences that attempted to disgrace and remove Dr. Harvey W. Wiley were responsible for his removal and branded as "infamously false" intimation that he had coerced employees of the weather bureau to support him for the secretaryship, or that public money had been spent in his candidacy.

He declares no charges were brought against him and he was refused a right to see the charges or face his accusers.

"MASSACHUSETTS SUITED."

Washington Regards Election of Mitchell Indorsement of Tariff Bill.

Washington, April 17.—In every corridor of the capitol yesterday was heard the comment, "Well, Massachusetts, after all, is suited with the Wilson-Underwood tariff bill." Only one construction is placed upon the action of the thirteenth district in electing John J. Mitchell, Democrat, to Congress, notwithstanding the eleventh hour protestations of Norman H. White, the Bull Moose candidate, that the tariff was not an issue in the contest. How seriously the result in Massachusetts is taken here may be inferred from the fact that when the early bulletins indicating Mitchell's election were read in the Democratic caucus yesterday, cheers went up and the Republicans were openly taunted with their repudiation by the Bay state voters. If the Wilson bill stood even a reasonable chance of being amended on its way to the White House, the outcome in the thirteenth district would be even more serious than might be measured by its effect upon the caucus, for it has served to discredit all the claims of New England that any of her industries could be injured by the Democratic revision. The New England Republicans have practically thrown up their hands, for although they will continue to go through the motions of trying to work a little more protection into the bill, they have no heart in their work. They feel that their section has voted for just the kind of a tariff it is getting, and that they have no warrant from the people for demanding anything different.

he sticks to Sickie plug and slices off each pipeful as he needs it, when he could get tobacco already cut up, in packages. He'll tell you, "because the Sickie way is the only way to get fresh tobacco, that smokes cool and sweet, and doesn't bite the tongue." He knows.

Tobacco that is cut up at the factory gets dried up on its way to you. Result—it burns fast and hot, and "bites." When you cut your own tobacco off the Sickie plug, you are well repaid for a minute's work by fresh tobacco—because all the flavor and moisture are pressed into the plug and held in by the natural leaf wrapper.
